

GREEN ASPARAGUS

Radishes
New Beets
Watercress
New Cabbage
Chives
Romain
Escarol
Dandelions
Kale
Eggplant
Old Mission
Oranges
King Oranges
Blood Oranges
Fancy Grapefruit
Fancy Limes
Ortman Oranges
DUCKS, CAPONS, TURKEYS, BEEF TENDERLOIN, FOUR X BEEF

SOMERS BROS.

mar18d

RUSH W. KIMBALL, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon

Office removed to 21 Broadway, Wauregan Block.

Hours: 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. Sundays 3 to 4 p. m. Telephone.

feb1d

Let Us Make Your

EASTER SUIT

From Choice Spring Suitings.

JOHN KUKLA, 208 Main St.

mar1d

O. F. HARRIS, M. D.,

31 Broadway.

OFFICE HOURS: 3—8 P. M.

Residence Telephone 291-4. feb3d

WE WILL SERVE A

Special Dinner

Easter Sunday

from 5 until 8 o'clock.

MUSIC BY THE ORCHESTRA.

Dinner Tickets $1.00.

mar1d

Wauregan House,

THE PARKER-DAVENPORT CO.

Proprietors

New, Reliable

GARDEN SEED

at CARDWELL'S

mar23d

Oxfords

Our $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00

line of Oxfords for Spring is the most complete line of Stylish Shoes we have ever shown. For Men and Women.

Tan and Black Velour Kid, Velour and Patent.

mar23d

Ferguson & Charbonneau,

FRANKLIN SQUARE.

mar12d

EASTER

GIFTS

Consisting of all the newest novelties in

Jewelry and Leather

Goods.

Prices reasonable.

mar23d

The Plant-Cadden Co.

Jewelry and Silversmiths,

Established 1872.

PLAUT-CADDEN BLDG.

mar23d

Who Is Looking

For the Following Vehicles?

Democrats, Top and Open Business

Wagons, Top and Open Concord.

If values received is considered, get our prices.

THE L. L. CHAPMAN CO.,

mar18d

18 to 20 Bath Street.

We do all Watch and Clock Work promptly and at the right prices.

mar18d

WM. FRISWELL, 27 Franklin St.

feb26d

JOSEPH BRADFORD,

Book Binder.

Blank Books Made and Ruled to Order,

108 BROADWAY.

Telephone 223. oct10d

The Norwich Nickel & Brass Co.,

Tableware, Chandeliers, Yacht Trimmings

and such things Refinished.

59 to 67 Chestnut St. Norwich, Conn.

oct10d

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, March 26, 1910.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Wheelmen were out in force on Friday.

The sale of flowers has broken all records.

Plans are being made for April fool day parties.

Mail carriers are burdened with Easter cards.

Hundreds of Easter eggs have been sent to children.

Lawler's millinery opening, today, at new store, 17 Broadway.—adv.

Midsummer temperature like that of Friday makes the farmers active.

Special Easter cheer will be provided in the various public institutions.

Sales of special delicacies for tomorrow's dinner will help business today.

The children's singing of Easter carols will be a feature of many services.

The streets were crowded all day

Friday and those who did not have to work watched others who did.

Millinery opening today, Lawler's

new store, 17 Broadway.—adv.

Express companies have felt the pressure of extra work attendant upon the sending of holiday gifts.

The sale of clothing and supplies for the boys and girls is no inconsiderable part of the Easter tide trade.

Connecticut farm owners are receiving notice of the New England corn exposition, to be held in Worcester from November 7 to 12.

Thursday's Worcester Post said:

There will be no service in All Saints' church this evening, owing to the illness of the rector, the Rev. Thomas F.

Davies.

A preliminary certificate of dissolution of the Fishers Island Brick Manufacturing company of New London has been filed with the secretary of state.

Nettie Holt Harding, test medium, at Spiritual academy, tomorrow.—adv.

Rev. P. C. Wright of the Central

Baptist church, Norwich, spoke Friday evening at the First Baptist church,

Meriden, in the last of the special

Lenten services.

A Southington correspondent writes:

Work on the Ahern Bros' state road contract on Wolcott mountain is now progressing rapidly and the Southington end of the highway is now being worked on.

Don't fail to attend St. Mary's parish costume contest and dance at the state armory Wednesday evening, Mar.

30. Dancing free. Ample car service.

Tickets 35 cents.—adv.

At some future meeting of the International Silver company, action may be taken on the plan to change the company from a New Jersey to a Connecticut corporation with headquarters in Meriden.

Friday's New London Telegraph

states that Mrs. George S. Palmer will sing morning and afternoon at the First Church of Christ, New London, on Easter Sunday. She will take the place of Mrs. Carey Congdon, soprano, who is seriously ill.

Low rates to California, Arizona,

New Mexico, Mexico. Tourist sleeper without change, berth $9.00. Washington-Sunset route, 170-228 Wash.

St., Boston.—adv.

There was considerable excitement near the wharf last night when the steamer crusher, which was being towed by the steam roller, skidded and upset.

It was righted with some difficulty and was towed to DeWolf's ledge where it is now at work.

Howard Mott, a member of the freshman class at Clark college, Worcester, has disappeared and the police have been asked to make a hunt for him. He is about 19 years of age, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adine E.

Mott of Block Island and word has reached the college that since he disappeared his father has died.

Miss Ethel Sullivan entertained at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Slat-

PERSONAL

Richard Murphy of Waterbury is at his home for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rouse are visiting their son in Providence.

J. McIntyre, now of Torrington, is at his home here for several days.

John O'Leary of Norwich has been the guest of friends in Waterford.

Henry Freeman of Bristol is at his home on Boswell avenue for Easter.

Patrick Sullivan and John Sample of Torrington are spending Easter in town.

Henry Croker of Hartford is spending a few days at his home in Norwich

town.

Elmer D. Kinsman is at Atlantic City, N. J., in the interest of his health.

Thomas Doyle of Waterbury is visiting William Houlihan of Boswell avenue.

Edward S. Lawler of Holy Cross college is spending the Easter holidays at his home.

Charles V. James of the Yale law school, 1910, is at his home in this city for Easter.

Mrs. Helen R. Perkins and Miss

Helen R. Perkins were visitors in New London Thursday.

Richard Sullivan and Miss Teresa

Sullivan of Hartford are at their home in town for Easter.

Roy Stearns and Lloyd M. Church of Cornell are at their home here for the Easter recess.

Mrs. Thomas Lynch and two children of New London were visitors in Norwich over the holiday.

It was stated on Friday evening that the condition of ex-Mayor C. L.

Harwood was about the same as on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Broadhurst and two daughters, Evon and Irene of Lafayette street, are visiting Mrs. Christian Miller of Whitinsville, Mass.

Fannie M. Gibson has returned from New Haven, where she attended a meeting of the chiropractors of the state, in the interest of forming a pedic society in Connecticut.

Mrs. George A. Frink of East Great

Plain, after visiting her daughter, Mrs.

Arnold of Plainville, and with relatives in Hartford and New Britain, has returned to her home.

Traver Briscoe, John Burke and Arthur Robinson of Yale, Edward Jewett of Trinity and Philip Johnson of the Hotchkiss school at Lakeville are at their homes in town for the Easter vacation.

MEMORIAL FOR

NATHAN L. BISHOP.

Graduates and Former Pupils of Central School District Given Opportunity to Subscribe.

It has been considered that as a mark of respect to the memory of Nathan L. Bishop, who for more than thirty years has been connected with the Central school district some memorial should be secured, and a committee, consisting of Mr. Grover E. Chas-

man, Mrs. Frank W. Browning, Miss

Florence E. Fellows, Charles H. Haskett, Capt. C. W. Worthington, Mr. W.

Roth, and Mr. W. H. Knight, has been appointed to secure a memorial to be placed in the Central school district. The following is the list of names of those who have been appointed to secure a memorial to be placed in the Central school district. The following is the list of

names of those who have been ap-

pointed to secure a memorial to be

placed in the Central school district. The following is the list of

names of those who have been ap-

pointed to secure a memorial to be

placed in the Central school district. The following is the list of

names of those who have been ap-

pointed to secure a memorial to be

placed in the Central school district. The following is the list of

names of those who have been ap-

pointed to secure a memorial to be

placed in the Central school district. The following is the list of

names of those who have been ap-

pointed to secure a memorial to be

UNION FREE SERVICE

Held at Broadway Congregational Church with Cantata, and Sermon by Rev. Edward S. Worcester—Other Services

The union fast day service of the three Congregational churches was held in the Broadway Congregational church on Friday morning. It was one of much dignity and impressiveness and had more than the usual amount of musical proportionment.

The cantata, which was given by the entirely musical, W. W. Gilchrist's cantata, The Lamb of God, being given an excellent rendering by the choir under the direction of the Rev. E. S.

Worcester. The cantata itself was full of power and beauty, and its impressiveness and value were finely brought out by the organ and the choir. The cantata was followed by prayer by the Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff of the Second church, and by scripture reading by the Rev. Lewellyn Pratt, D. D.

The short sermon was by the pastor,

Rev. Edward S. Worcester, whose text was from Mark 16, 39, "And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and

gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this

centurion, which stood over against

him, saw that he so cried out, and

gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this

centurion, which stood over against

him, saw that he so cried out, and

gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this

centur